PYTHON DEVELOPER

ABOUT MYSELF

Emerging Python developer, eager to apply coding knowledge and learn collaboratively while tackling hands-on coding challenges.

EXPERIENCE

DCSE Lab | 2021 – 2023

Mechanical Design Engineer

I collaborated with a dynamic team as a mechanical design engineer, utilizing SolidWorks as our primary tool. Our project focused on the Aquatic Weed Harvester machine, and my role involved both design and meticulous calculations.

Seeker Saigon | 2020 – 2022

Staff

My part-time sales role provided valuable skills like communication, and client relations. These skills seamlessly apply to boost collaboration, user engagement, and project delivery in a development role.
